Office Provost Marshal of the Post,

Jackson, Tenn., March 24th 1863.

Lieutenant James Audrick
F. G. Gibbs, and N. H. Parkman Citizens, now sent to me by Col.
Mizner, last evening, and today I am in receipt of a letter from his Captⁿ stating that I will receive instructions from Post Head Quarters, as to their charges, or disband. I have also in charge N. F. Parkman a son of N. H. Parkman, arrested and sent in by the Pickets today.

Respectfully
D. A. Stockwell
Capt Provost Marshal
