Col A. A. Smith
Comdg at Clarksville
Colonel:

The Maj Genl Comdg has been informed that one Cornelius E Peacher and two Wallers, three dangerous and desperate characters, are now in confinement at Clarksville, and requests that if the Military Commission called by Order from Maj Genl Thomas is still in session, these men be tried as early as practicable. If the Military Commission has been dissolved, you will please send those men to Nashville for trial by the Commission in session here.

Please reply.

I am, Colonel,
