My dear friends
I have been thinking of you very much and I am sure you will be glad to hear from me a few days ago in answer you say you are needing the money I owe you I am sorry to say to you that I am not prepared at the present time to send the whole sum but I have upon me at such a painful rate this year after the cyclone has done its fearful work we have had a very bad fire the heat damaged it one half so that when more tobacco was ready to cut nine of my family was taken out on Sunday the fever which was followed by 3 weeks and wither by which we lost half the crop next when we liked one 3rd of <sup>from the</sup> money one about 3 of our wages I am not being up as timber arrange ment the timber is waiting there is only 3 of us to work and we are all sick now but I consider it a great debt to go if I can collect any thing till its owing to me I will try to pay you all I can in about time

Yours respectfully
J. H. DePrees
