1. Moderate drunkenness, will directly from it.
2. While no one is a drunkard, there are six hundred thousand drunkards in America.
3. Intoxicants are no good as a beverage; they are always safer to use in case of an accident.
4. The idea of醉 of deceit, and of the power of our own mistaken one.
5. The drinking of the larger portion of the larger portion of poverty and crime.
6. Both science and experience prove that even moderate drink is injurious.

BORN JULY 10, 1839.
DIED DEC 23, 1893.

The friends and acquaintances of Mr. W. J. Carney are requested to attend the funeral of his wife, to-morrow, Sunday, afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

MARIA,

Services conducted at the residence by Rev. A. P. McFerrin.

MARSHFIELD, TEXAS, Dec. 23, 1893.

On Dec. 24th the remains of Mrs. W. J. Carney were laid at rest in Evergreen Cemetery. Mrs. Carney had been sick only a few days. But medical skill and the kind ministrations of loving hands could not draw her from the icy bed of death. She was loved by all who knew her. A good woman has gone and not only her family, but the entire community mourn the loss.

urnal interests are often destroyed by rough drink, for the Bible teaches that no drunkard shall enter heaven.

Bible pronounces no blessing upon drinking, but many upon abstinence.

It is easier to keep a pledge solemnly given than a resolution.

A pledge protects us from the temptations of friends and relatives, from the temptations of sin.

Persons miscalculate their strength when they drink in moderation, and laves to the drinking habit may be aware of it.

Temperance obstructs civil education, religion, and every useful reform.
