Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn Celebrate Wedding Anniversary at "Ash Crest"

1874-1924

An interesting event of the week was the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dickson Dunn at their beautiful country home, Ash Crest, near Hendersonville, Saturday night, the hours being from 7 to 11 o'clock.

For the occasion the reception rooms were attractively decorated with stands of ferns and cut flowers, many of the latter being gifts from friends. A number of handsome gifts in remembrance of the fortieth milestone reached in the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn came from relatives and near friends.

Nearly 400 invitations were sent out and a large company was in attendance to extend felicitations to the bride and groom of half a century. A number of relatives and friends from Nashville were present and others came from distant places.

Special interest centered in the ceremony which recalled that of fifty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn stood under an archway of vines and flowers, from which was suspended a white wedding bell. They were attended by their two daughters, Mrs. Ewing Callender of Hendersonville, and Mrs. Harry S. Wherry of Nashville, and their granddaughters, Miss Elizabeth Callender and Miss Augusta Wherry. The Rev. T. A. Matthews, pastor of the Methodist church in Hendersonville, said the ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered by Miss Callendar, Miss Wherry, Mr. J. A. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Dan Montgomery. Miss Callendar sang "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and "Silver Threads Among the Gold," with Miss Wherry at the piano. Mr. Kirkpatrick was violinist and Mr. Montgomery played the guitar, the latter being boyhood friends of the groom. Miss Wherry also rendered "My Old Kentucky Home," in remembrance of the native place of the bride, Mrs. Dunn having been Miss Martha Elizabeth Talbot of Kentucky before her marriage to Mr. Dunn.

Assisting in welcoming the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wherry, Misses Sallie and Minnie Dunn, nieces of the groom; Mrs. Cecil of Philadelphia, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dunn of Atlanta and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Johnson of Campbellsville, Ky.

Cakes were served late in the evening and they were moulded in designs that suggested the golden wedding idea while the decorations of the cakes bore a similar motif.

It was a matter of affectionate interest that Mr. and Mrs. Black Dunn, also of Hendersonville and the former the only brother of the "groom," celebrated their golden wedding anniversary a few years ago and were present to extend their felicitations and to share in the auspicious occasion.

Mrs. T. D. Tyson of Nashville, the groom's only sister, was also among the special guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn have made their home in Hendersonville since their marriage and are known and beloved throughout the entire community. Up to a few years ago when they went to Ash Crest, on the Gallatin road, to reside, they had lived at the ancestral home of Mr. Dunn.
