MS. REC. 83-18 71

TO THE
HIGH AND MIGHTY PRINCE

J A M E S,
of God; King of GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, IRELAND, Defender of the Faith, &c.

of the Bible with Grace, Mercy, and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

fold were the blessings, most dread Sovereign, which Almighty Father of all mercies, bestowed upon the people of England, when Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. For whereas many, who withed not well unto our Son, that upon the setting of our Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory, some thick and dark mists would so have overshadowed this land, that men should have scarcely way they were to walk; and that it should hardly be known who was the appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength, the appointed and fruitful mists, and gave unto all that were well-disposed of comfort; especially when we beheld the Government established, and Your hopeful Seed, by an undoubted Title, and this abundant Peace and Tranquility at home and abroad.

Boys, there was no one that more filled our hearts, than the blessed teaching of God's sacred Word amongst us, which is that he should possess all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof is to the time spent in this transitory world, but directed and disposed to eternal happiness which is above in Heaven.

to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue in the famous Predecessor of Your Majesty did leave it: nay, to go forward and resolution of a man in maintaining the truth of Christ, and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the heart of all and religious people unto you, that Your very name is precious to both beheld You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts, who under God, is the immediate Author of their true happiness.
ment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increased and they observe, that the zeal of Your Majesty toward the House of to go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting such parts of Christendom, by writing in defence of the Truth, which unto that man of sin, as will not be hated; and every day learned discourse, by frequenting the House of God, by hearing cherishing the teachers thereof, by caring for the Church, as if our Father.

of this right Christian and religious affection in Your Majesty to declare it to others, than the vehement and perpetuated and publishing of this work, which now with all humility we present for when Your Highness had once out of deep judgment apperceived that out of the Original Sacred Tongues, together with both in our own and other foreign Languages of many worthy men, there should be one more exact Translation of the Holy Scripture to Your Majesty did never desire to urge and to excite those to whom

And thou, O Lord,

you, even a great sacrifice in the meantime of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

the man said unto me behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I show thee; for to the intent that I show thee into thee art thou brought, I there declare all that thou hast seen to the house of Israel.

And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the main house was a high wall of brick, the height of the wall was three cubits; and the thickness of the wall of the building, on the outside, was one reed.
And the gate which went into the gate, which was on the east, and went up the wall, and measured the threshold which was one reed broad; and the width of the gate, which was
