1st CENTUARY: DIED—On Tuesday morning the 1st instance Mrs. Mary Crockett, consort of Col. Anthony Crockett of this county. Her illness was short and severe, but religion as she did upon her christian faith, death was stripped of all its terrors. She died as she lived, universally beloved, and universally respected. Such is left an affectionate husband and several promising children to bemoan their irreparable loss.
