A light from our hearth is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place vacant in our hearts
That never can be filled.

Obituary— Mrs. P. C. Crutcher departed this life on February 1, 1888. She is not dead, but sleeping. The last time I saw her was the evening before the fatal morning. Little did I think she embraced her with a child's affection that it was the last time I should see her on earth. But the will of the Lord be done. All that live must die. All that knew her loved her. She was known to every body as Aunt Kate. As a mother she had few equals. As a guardian she was unsurpassed. Farewell, dear aunt, farewell for the present. Let us who remain make up our minds that we will meet her, not on this earth, but just across the river. Her nephew, Fosna.

Services at the house by Rev. B. F. Ferrell.

JULY 28, 1885.

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAP. II.

Wise men inquire after Christ. 11 They worship him, and offer presents. 13 Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and Mary. 16 Herod layeth the children at Bethlehem. 19 Christ brought out of Egypt.

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt have I called my Son."

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which is, God with us.
