DEATHS.

DIED

Departed this life on the 10th day of November in the month of Douglas Great of this City on the 10th year of her age. She was the mother of some lovely children from whom she had parted a few weeks for the improvement of her health. Among those there are some that said for distant lands yet never reached their heavenly shores. I will be allowed to say she has the goodness and wisdom of the kind Parent and friend of her home - she is an inhabitant of the cell and silent chamber of the dead. But there is a good Providence that watches around the bed of the dying Christian such as the Lord's Word softens the footsteps of the path through death, and fills the hour with heavenly melody like distant music towards the falling shrub, and as a hand of mercy and love break on by one, so temporal objects fade away and the him of the active world live forever with kindred spirits in Heaven. A. P.
