Obituary.

Betty, infant daughter of A. G. Gresham, died August 24, 1901.

Little Betty, so gentle and lovely, longed from the household, and no one knew there could be no more children in his arms and blessed the when her darling home—sheltered from the care of earth forever.

Dear fond parents, the Good Shepherd will be better care of the pet lamb in a world, with all your love and care. You miss the prattle of the little voice and the patter of little feet, no all day, making music to your heart, the agonizing thought comes, that they still in death. Yet it is only for the part are parted, and when you enter the Holy Land you will hear the same old melodies sweet and pure as ever.
