SCOTT.

Mrs. Jane Scott was born in South Carolina Dec 21, 1812, and died May 9, 1893. She united with the M. E. Church at about fourteen years of age, but six or eight years later, learning the way of the Lord more perfectly, she united with the Church of Christ, of which she lived a faithful member for more than half a century. She was twice married: First, to Brother John Broom, who was an elder of the Clear Creek congregation, McNairy county, Tenn., when he died—a grand, good man, who went to his reward many years ago. Second, to Brother James Scott, Adamsville, Tenn., who is left to mourn his loss. His form is bending toward the tomb with the weight of more than eighty years. He appears to be full of faith and hope, only waiting to be called into the presence of her who was his solace in his declining years. The writer has known Sister Scott from early boyhood; and as far back as he can remember, she was regarded as being one of the staunch members of Clear Creek church. For many years she has seemed very much like a mother to me. If I mistake not, she was one of the charter members of Clear Creek congregation, which is at least fifty years old. She had several children by her first husband, but none by her last. Some of her children preceded her to the better land, while others survive her. All of her living children are members of the Church of Christ. She died full of faith and hope. Many of the fathers and mothers in Israel are falling; and who, O who will take their places? I confess that in many instances I fail to see among the young worthy representatives of the father and mother of to-day. Lord help us to be the beings that we should, and lead us into the places where we can do the most good.

SCOTT.

Mrs. Nannie Scott was born Nov. 3, 1867, and died May 4, 1893. She was married to J. R. Suratt June 27, 1891, and to John F. Scott Aug. 16, 1888. She became a member of the Church of Christ worshipping at Adamsville, Tenn., more than ten years since. Those who knew her better than myself testify that she lived a consistent Christian till her death. She was carried off without much warning, having fallen from her chair into the arms of death. Her husband and children have my heartfelt sympathy. May they live so that they will be ready to meet their loved ones on the brighter shore.

KERBY.

B. F. Kerby was born May 18, 1839, in Hardin county, Tenn., and died June 20, 1892. He became a member of the Church of Christ in St. Louis, Mo., in 1870. He united with the church at Clear Creek, McNairy county, Tenn., by letter in 1871. So far as I know, he was a good father, a true husband, a worthy citizen, and a consistent Christian. He said to the loved ones bowing over his bed awaiting his departure, that he did not have a doubt. To have full assurance of a blessed hereafter, based upon the word of God, is worth more than all the world besides. Lord help us to live so that in death we will not have a doubt.
