CHAP. IV.

ed's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his bless-on the good. 3 He exhorteth to the study the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and see.

OR behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and the proud, yea, and all that do ekedly, shall be stubble: and the y that cometh shall burn them up, ith the Lord of hosts, that it shall ave them neither root nor branch.
But unto you that fear my me, shall the Sun of righteous-ss arise with healing in his wings; al ye shall go forth, and grow up calves of the stall.

And ye shall tread down the wickl; for they shall be ashes under the les of your feet in the day that I all do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

Remember ye the law of Mos my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, ith the statutes and judgments.

Behold, I will send you Elijah e prophet before the coming of the eat and dreadful day of the Lord:

And he shall turn the heart of e fathers to the children, and the eart of the children to their fathers, st I come and smite the earth ith a curse.
