Heart Attack Is Fatal to Thomas D. Morton After Brief Illness.

Thomas D. Morton, 56, an employe of the city for past thirty years, died Tuesday at 6:30 a. m. at his home, 713 E. Woodland street, following a sudden heart attack.

Mr. Morton had been at his office at the city hall Saturday, and although he had not been feeling well for several weeks, his death was unexpected.

For the past years Mr. Morton had been associated with the comptroller's office as accounting property clerk, and had charge of the collection of street lighting and sidewalk assessments. During his employ by the city Mr. Morton had become popular with workers and had won many friends in his official relations.

Previous to his association with the comptroller's office he had worked in the city waterworks department for a number of years. Although he was a native of White Bluff, Mr. Morton came to Nashville when he was a boy and received his education in Nashville schools. For several years he taught in the Centennial Baptist school.

Surviving him are three brothers, W. L. Morton, 1801 Church Street, W. L. Morton, all of Nashville, and one sister, Mrs. Will Hewlett of Birmingham, Ala.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday evening at the church of Dorris, Karacil and Co., by Dr. W. P. Bowers, pastor, in the Rest Room of the church.

And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

But while he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins.

And after six months he was sent to Galilee.

And as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.
