

Genealogy of the Patterson Family and Father Nathaniel Patterson was raised in until he was 18 years old he then came to America tailor by trade I donot know where he first served in the Continental war five years was in the army at Braddock's defeat in 1755. or 1750 or 1751 he married a daughter of John his name was Isabel^{17th} and settled in Pennsylvania on the Delaware river, 12 Miles from Philadelabout the year 1767, he moved to North Carolina. two or three times and then settled in Orange there he died and is buried at the Hawfields house one half Mile from his home Grand Father over, came from Scotland he he called John I know nothing more about his Grand Mother Patterson died at my Father's house buried her by the side of his Father's ~~at~~ at the own church where they were members one son and six Daughters

Patterson was born April 23rd [1752]

Patterson was born July the 22 [1755]

Patterson was born December the 24th [1759]

Mary Patterson was born February the 19th [1771]

Jane Patterson married Thomas Ward he died and she married James Pugh they lived and died in Randolph County North Carolina

Margaret Patterson married James Ward he died and she married Thomas Swift they lived and died in Randolph Isabel Patterson married William Ray she died in Guilford and is buried by the side of my Father Ray moved to Henderson County Tennessee and died there

Susanna Patterson married John Ray they died in Orange County North Carolina

Elizabeth Patterson married Joseph Baker they lived and died in Orange County North Carolina and was buried at the Hawfields church

Mary Patterson married John Foxsett he died in Orange she moved with her children to ~~the~~ Henderson County Tenn. and died there