ther shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be ^a a delightful land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 [†] Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 ^b Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept [†] his ordinance, and that we have walked [†] mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now ^c we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness [†] are set up; yea, they that work wickedness [†] are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16 [†] Then they ^a that feared the LORD [†] spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and ^a a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And ^b they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my ^{||} jewels; and ^k I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 ^l Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

FOR, behold, ^a the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all ^b the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be ^c stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall ^d leave them neither root nor branch.

2 [†] But unto you that ^a fear my name shall the [†] Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 ^e And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 [†] Remember ye the ^h law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him [†] in Horeb for all Israel, with ^k the statutes and judgments.

5 [†] Behold, I will send you ^l Elijah the prophet ^m before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and ^a smite the earth with ^a a curse.
