Head Quarters, Provost Marshall's Office
11th Division, Reserve Army of the Tennessee Jackson, June 28th, 1863

P. Young A. A. Genl

Sir: in accordance with orders I respectfully submit the following report. On or about the 24th day of May, 1863, received an order from Brig. Genl. Dedah, Commandant of this division at that time, to price a lot of Cotton at Gravel Hill, then in possession of L. M. Huggins, which order I executed, and gave to L. M. Huggins, a conditional receipt for the following is the number of bales and weight of Cotton -

Eighty-five bales - weighing 46,905 lbs.

L. M. Huggins informed me, that 81 bales of the Cotton belonged to Mr. O'Brien of Louisville, Kentucky, that he Huggins had taken the cotton in for Mr. O'Brien and had received his pay for it. Three bales was his own property, and the other bale was the property of a man by the name of Johnston: The whole of the Cotton was sent to the river foreshore.
ment, by direction of Brig. Genl. Judah.

Your Respectfully,
John H. Rigby

Rvo. Marshall

To whom was the Cotton delivered & whose receipt if any have you for it

Capt. C. S. Hotchkiss

Penguin of Brig. Genl. Judah what disposition to make of the Cotton, he told me that, Lieut H. H. Price, who was then the acting Quarter-Master of this division, had instructions, and would attend to it. I received no Receipt for it.

John H. Rigby

Rvo. Marshall

Capt. C. S. Hotchkiss

To whom the Cotton turned over his property & papers, will state on this sheet what disposition was made of the Cotton forward this to

C. S. Hotchkiss a.a.a.g Appraochly find'€™d (the original) & Q'd the debt of Dr. Mills in answer to a telegram calling for this information dated June 20, 62.

John A. Blumenau
2020 S. Michigan