List of Prisoners to be released.

J. B. Ware
J. C. Hendley
B. M. Elston
W. M. Chandler
A. W. Parson
M. M. Ferrin
W. H. Cash
C. W. Martin
A. Brundin
D. M. Miller

Charges: madhouse against
A. F. Hutchins
J. R. Nelson
J. C. Nelson
Thomas Albright
A. H. Scott
A. H. McMillan
J. W. Nelson

1st. Thomas
2nd. Williams
3rd. McIlhenny

John Brown released

Patience Thompson
W. W. Thompson

Oct. 24, 1862.
Fort Henry Tenn.
September 24th 1862.

Lieut. Charles Langdon
Thirteenth Marched
Fort Hamilton N.Y.

I hereby have the honour to return to you the following named prisoners, to wit:

1st. William Murphy of Canton N.Y.
Charge: Sympathy with the rebels, and giving his aid and assistance towards raising guerrilla companies.

2nd. John A. Atwood, of Clay Co. N.Y.
Charge: Sympathy with the rebels. Does not want to take the oath of allegiance.

3rd. Wilson Bissett. Sympathy with the rebels.
Has on several occasions uttered threats to hang Union citizens, helped to raise guerrilla companies.

4th. Franklin Nunnery, of Clay Co. N.Y.
Charge: Sympathy with the rebels. Does not want to take the oath of allegiance.

John H. Atwood, & Franklin Nunnery, have always been quiet & peaceable citizens. Further I have further to state that Capt. Daniel of Canton N.Y., who was brought here as prisoners, last Saturday, took part in the late attack on Fort Donelson.

All of which is hereby respectfully submitted.

A. Matthews
1st Lieut. Co. C. 5th Iowa Cav.