Brigadier General Hulbert,

Commanding 14th Division

I find in "Report Book 1", page 8, the following entry:

"John H. Garnett, Geo. F. C. Gray, Rev. A. J. Moore, R. C. Crawford, James A. Ellis, Isaac W. Bland, Wm. H. Cook, R. P. Healy, Willsully, J. Donahy, Rob. B. Lightfoot, James Collins, Calvin Bowles, George M. Morgan, James L. Fleming, J. H. Wilson, were arrested on the charge of being disloyal citizens, who expressed a willingness to be sent south instead of taking the oaths of allegiance to the Government of the United States. They were ordered by Capt. J. A. H. Pope, arrested and placed in confinement on the 11th day of August, with orders to send them by train on the morning train to Jacksonville, to be sent to Illinois as prisoners, to be held during the pleasure of the President of the United States, which order was executed August 12th, 1862."
