Bond of

Mep Stratton Cranton

Calgary, Sept. 1
Gallatin, Tenn., November 20th, 1864.

Know all men by these presents:

That W. Dance J. Steedman, Archibald Overton, William Coles, Isaac Reyna, Thomas Stone, and Thomas C. Strickler are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America, in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars for the payment of which, we joint and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, to be paid to our said bond, and dated this 21st day of November A.D. 1864.

The conditions of the above obligation is such that the above named W. Dance J. Steedman, Archibald Overton, William Coles, Isaac Reyna, Thomas Stone, and Thomas C. Strickler, residents of Sumner County, Tenn., having been brought before me, Geo. W. E. B. Col. A. M. Marshall, when charged of disloyal acts against the government of the United States.

Any of the above named W. Dance J. Steedman, Archibald Overton, William Coles, Isaac Reyna, Thomas Stone, and Thomas C. Strickler shall in any manner give aid or comfort to any one belonging or pretending to belong to the so-called Confederate States army, or the so-called Confederate government, or shall in any manner interfere with the efforts of the Federal government to reestablish its authority, then this bond shall have full force and effect.

But shall hereafter in all matters conduct themselves as becomes good and loyal citizens,
Then this obligation shall become void.
