Report of two men who came to picket post.
Robert Anderson

Lives about 9 miles west of Lexington in the neighborhood of old Shady Grove. Charge ofHarvey, taken for oath of allegiance to the U.S. Army; a sermon delivered by him in the Cavalry said Magee on Jackson, Dec. 19th.

Z. Newell

Lives about 8 miles west of Lexington. Lives in the neighborhood of old Shady Grove. Charged not in any way to have been, but assisted in the capture of 44 Iowa boys. Inconceivable to union men to believe it, the union men of the neighborhood to be a danger to the union cause. (also refused to take the oath)

For proofs & information for the above statement inquire of Ezz John Sherrard. Ezz Jackson Anderson, the former lives on the Slaws road 9 miles west of Lexington. The latter lives on the Independence road 9 miles west of Lexington.
