Know all Men by these Presents, That we J. A. Samuels and R. L. Moore of _____ in the County of _____ Crittenden and State of Kentucky, as principal, and _____ of the County of _____ in the same State, as sureties, hereby acknowledge ourselves to be held and firmly bound unto the United States of America, in the sum of five thousand Dollars. for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we hereby bind ourselves, and each of our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

Sealed with our seals this 11th day of December A. D. 1862.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bounden J. A. Samuels and R. L. Moore has been arrested upon the charge of having given aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States and of other acts of disloyalty; and whereas the said J. A. Samuels & R. L. Moore has taken and subscribed the oath hereto annexed, and ^{They,} ~~Hopkins Webster senior & Crittenden~~ has agreed that ^{they} he will not leave the County of _____ during the present rebellion, without the written permission of the commanding officer of the nearest military post established by the United States authorities and will report in person to such commander, whenever by him required in writing so to do; and has also agreed to give immediate information to said commander of any hostile movement, gathering or conspiracy which ^{they} he may become apprised of; and to notify the officer aforesaid of any and all attempts which ^{they} he may learn my person is making to enlist recruits for, or to induce others to join the so-called Confederate army, or to give aid and comfort thereto. Now, if the said J. A. Samuels and R. L. Moore shall well and truly keep ^{their} said oath and perform ^{their} other agreements hereinbefore set out, then this obligation shall be void; otherwise of full force and effect.

And it is hereby understood and agreed, that in case the said J. A. Samuels & R. L. Moore should violate any of the conditions of this obligation any officer in the military service of the United States, acting under the orders of the nearest post commander, may seize and sell or otherwise dispose of any and all property of the above named obligors, to an amount sufficient to satisfy and discharge the amount above named, without having recourse to any proceeding at law.
