

4426

Apr 03

Edgers

belonged to John Parcher, Capt's, Cavalry that he paid for him ^{Col. H. H. Underwood} ~~to~~ ^{let} Jim Underwood have it to pay for a pony lost which was taken for his girth Campbell got it for Mrs. Underwood; and Jack put it in hands of Mr. Barr temporarily. The State soldiers, ^{from Murpeshire} took it from Barr, & left it at Eastly's, and Parchment took it from Eastly's & has now possession, Tho W. S. Sellers' Sgt. Green & Den-neth claim the animal by order for an officer

Office Provost Marshal

H. A. Donelco Jun. April 19th 63.

To Col. Lane Commanding,

I have to some extent examined a case that has come to the office. It appears that John Parcher, living above Cumberland City had a nag which was taken for him last Autumn by Capt. Croft, and as claimed by Mrs. Underwood, given to her husband as pay for a lost which we took for him Jack Campbell got it for Mrs. Underwood, and put it temporarily into the hands of Mr. Barr, not long since, the Murpeshire troops took it from Barr, & left it at Eastly's, & the former summer, Parchment, took it from East-ly's & keeps it. Tho W. S. Sellers' Cavalry, Sgt. Green & Dannel, by order from their officers have claimed the animal, and told Mr. Barr they would hold him responsible. I told the bearer of Mr. Barr's letter that they had better divide the animal itself among the claimants. But I think it would be as well to let it remain where it is