Gallatin, May 23, 1863.

5523

Jane E. A. Bragg Sen.

698  DC  1868

Leaves of persons to be sent south of the lines, and one (James Tracy) to go to the Penitentiary at Elbow.

Citizens

Lee

Lee

The C. P. M. D.  M. May 28, 1863

Rec'd 4th Reg. D.C. May 23, 1863
May 28th 1863

I send list of persons due 10 day to Gen. Morgan at Nashville.

A. A. Park

May 28th 1863

I. L. Scott of Camp

By command of

[Handwritten note: "Major & Co."

[Handwritten note: "Stark & Co."]
Head Quarters W S Forces
Culalious Ferry May 25, 1863

Big Lew Morgan

Send today, James Duracy, who has been so before reported. He has to go to the Penitentiary at Alton. By mistake I did not send him where the other prisoners went, and

Isaac W. Harris and his daughter, Miss Sarah Jane Harris to go beyond lines South, also,

William Walton and wife
Mrs. Susan Walton and son
William Walton and daughter
Mary I. Walton and daughter
Trilla Walton and son
S. Earnest Walton to go South of the lines. Also,

Mrs. Eliza Harris to go South of

Respectfully Submitted

E. J. Paino