Chattanooga, June 29th, 1864,

Colonel—

Your favor of the 23d met in relation to your action in the case of Jesse R. Blackburn, a loyal citizen sent to confinement at Richmond, is received.

The Maj. General Commanding directs that J. Hixon Van Dyke and John S. Bridges, arrested as hostages be sent under guard to this Office; and that Alfred Squoffard be released.

I am, Colonel,

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
