Petition
Nashville, Tenn. April 19th. 1804

C. T. Smith, Esq.

States he entered abundant plantation and finds it occupied. Desires possession.
Nashville April 16th 1864

To Maj. Gen. L. Y. Rousseau
Commanding District
Nashville

General:

On the 11th of April 1864 Mr. J. F. Hauling, Special agent for abandoned property, granted a lease to me of a plantation, and steam and mill at and near Smith Station, on the Tennessee and Alabama Rail Road. Upon examination I find the mill and mill and occupied by Mr. O’Riel, on private accounts. A seizure possession be given me in accordance with the lease aforesaid.

Respectfully yours,

W. G. Smith

Adjt. Gen.
To Majr Genl. Peachau Commanding
District of Middle Tennessee.
The petition of Wm. E. Campbell & Co. of Alma Cnty., Tennessee, respectfully requests that she be the owner in part of a farm containing about 400 acres on Hasting Creek, Maury County, Tennessee, in which there is a stream called "Black Creek," and erected in partnership between her brothers Geo. and John, Jr., and she desires where said farm and engaged in cultivating it, with her own hands and stock, the above theone fourth part of said tract of land, and all the stock is her own, and she has been raised upon the place and her for about three years. Concluded it upon her own account, one fourth of said farm belong to Callie Campbell's children.
the remaining half belonging to her two brothers in the Confederate Army. She therefore, owning the one fourth of said farm, will be able to pay said debt, on half of the mill. She has taken the act, at her own expense, and requests to be good graces.
In consideration of the premises, she asks that her farm, land, property, and the privilege of removing all the farm without restrictions, and for other assistance until as the justice of her case may dictate.

Sincerely, Wm. Campbell
